Anti-ragging Week

Activity Report

To raise awareness about the ill effects of ragging, Anti-ragging week was celebrated at the Department of Zoology, Patna University from 12th to 18th August 2024. A short video was shown to M. Sc. Semester III (Zoology and ESM) students to spread awareness among students regarding ill-effects of ragging on 12th August and to the newly admitted M. Sc. I students on 13th August (Induction meet). Also, a slogan writing competition against ragging was organized for the students of M. Sc. Semesters I and III (Zoology) and Semester II (ESM). Students participated the event with great zeal. First, Second and Third Best Slogans were selected from M. Sc. Semester I and M. Sc. Semester III (Zoology and ESM).
