

43

Syllabus for Ph.D Course Work

Paper I

Research Mythology including Quantitative Methods and Computer Application

1. Criteria of good Research, Meaning and objects of Research. Importance of Research methodology, kinds of legal Research, Historical, analytical and philosophical.
2. Legal Research in India; Evolution and Development: Problems and challenges
3. Interdisciplinary Perspective on Legal Research
4. Identification of Research Problem, Survey of Literature Working; Hypotheses
5. Tools and Techniques: Doctrinal and Empirical Research; Research based Interview Technique; Technique of socio-Legal Research, Determination of sample Design Data collection and Analysis
6. Main steps in Research writing; Lay out, chapterisation; Preparation Introduction and conclusion; Treatment of quotations; method of Bibliography; Abbreviations.
7. Computer Applications in Legal research
8. Reviewing of Published works
9. Seminar Presentation

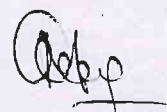

DEAN
FACULTY OF LAW
PATNA UNIVERSITY
PATNA

42

Paper-II

Research Methods Specific to Concerned Subject (Law)

1. Law and social Transformation
2. Ethics, Morality and Law
3. Modern theories of Justice and Economic Approach to Law
4. Inter relationship between Law and Modernization in a developing society
5. Modern challenges to legal formalism and Recent Legal theories, critical legal studies, feminism and Postmodernism.
6. New perspective on legal theory, Human Rights; Sustainable Development, globalization.

DEAN
FACULTY OF LAW
PATNA UNIVERSITY
PATNA