A Report on Seminar dated 28th Nov. 2020.

A very fruitful seminar dated 28th Nov. 2020 conducted in our dept. of applied economics and commerce for the sake of knowledge and experience of the research candidates. Such seminar is very motivational and helpful that will definitely boost up our morale and zeal to conduct our further research work.

Firstly I would like to thank heartfully to our Head of Dep. Dr. prof. Mahesh chandra Prasad Sir and other teachers to conduct such kind of platform to present our self that will directly or indirectly enhance our quality of Research work.

In today's seminar, some of us of our batch July '19 got the opportunity to share the work status in front of the batch and HOD and other teachers. First presentation was given by Piyush Ranjan then Ganesh Rahul kumar and Abhishek and they all presented their work status of their research work. Some of us will get ~~another~~ opportunity on next date dated 12th Dec. 2020.

So far that can be concluded that all the research scholar should be must present at such dates to share their work status or progress of their research work on monthly basis that will help us step by step motion.

REPORT OF SEMINAR

M. V. D.
13/03/21.

As per Ordinance and Regulations for Ph.D degree, the Seminar is conducted on March 13, 2021, that is, the Second Saturday of ^{this} month in Department of Applied Economics & Commerce, Patna University for sharing the progress of research work as well as any difficulties faced by the researchers during their research work.

The Seminar is organised in our Department mainly with the ^{help &} effort of our Head of the Department, Prof. (Dr.) Mahesh chandra Prasad Sir who is so sincere and dedicated towards his work and their students. The Seminar is started at 9:00 clock in the presence of Prof. (Dr.) Mahesh chandra Prasad, Dr. Mohd. Alamgir Sir and all the researchers of this Department.

In Today's Seminar, Kumari Megha presented first in her research topic which is related to Consumer buying behaviour and she shared their work status of research as she prepared a questionnaire of 25 questions. I asked ^{Megha} Kato a question related to ~~Megha~~ her questionnaire and she explained it well.

After that, the another researcher, Kumari Aarti Singh shared ~~their~~ her progress of research work, that is, related to problems & prospects of Women Entrepreneurs. She explained the overview of her topic and what she has observed during collection of data, that is, through questionnaire and interview method. A research scholar, Bhola Bhaskar asked ~~that~~ ^{her} why she relate her research work with Caste and another researcher vishakha has also asked the sample size of her study. She clarified well so many things related to her research work.

There is another researcher, Reena Singh who throws light on her research topic which is related to skill development. She discussed her problems related to research work with Dr. Mohd. Alamgir Sir and he suggested, guided and clarify^{all} her confusions.

After Reena Singh, Rahul Kumar put into words his progress of research work which is related to Speculative Hedging. He intelligently elucidated that he is working on Data Preparation and right now he only focused on two metals that is Copper & Gold.

Vishakha, who is also one of the researchers expressed their research progress related to Job Satisfaction and Job retention which is the topic of her research. She glossed that she worked on introduction part of her thesis and she also stated ~~that~~ the variables which she took for Job Satisfaction and Job retention. Arjun Prasad, Research Scholar, asked Vishakha, the hypothesis of her research work and discussed variables taken by her. Md. Alamgir Sir advised her to classify data into different categories.

Bhola Bhaskar, the last researcher who presented in this Seminar related to his topic, that is, Bihar Tourism and Economic Development. He explicated an introduction part which includes objectives and hypothesis. He unfolds that he took six places for his study and also illustrated various tourism places of Bihar. Kumari Aarti Singh asked him why he is not taking some other places which is so highlighted as Tourism Places. He gave explanation and Md. Alamgir Sir advised him to listen carefully first and then ~~spell~~ spell out.

So, once again, I ~~would like to~~ ^{would like to} thank Prof. (Dr.) MCP Sir who gave us an opportunity and provide us such a motivational and beneficial platform to represent oneself and status too of our research work.
