Chhatra JD(U) sweeps Patna University Students' Union polls, ABVP bags 1 key post

PATNA: Chhatra JD(U), the students' wing of JD(U), captured four out of the five key posts in the Patna University Students' Union (PUSU) election, the results of which were announced in the wee hours of Sunday. However, the students' wing of RJD could not win even a single seat. ABVP, the students' wing of BJP, registered its win on the post of general secretary. It seems, the old political alignment of JD(U)-BJP is still popular in the student community in the state, feel some political commentators. Even though RJD, JD(U), Congress and Left parties make up the Mahagathbandhan government in Bihar, the students' wings of these political parties contested against each other in the PUSU election. Chhatra JD(U)-supported Anand Mohan was declared elected as the PUSU president, defeating his nearest rival Shashwat Shekhar of NSUI by a margin of 1,193 votes. While Mohan got 3,710 votes, Shekhar could secure 2,517 votes. Chhatra RJD candidate Saket Kumar finished third by securing 1,995 votes. There were seven contestants for the post. Chhatra JD(U)'s Vikramaditya Singh was elected as the vice-president by defeating ABVP's Pratibha Kumari by a margin of 1,329 votes. Singh received 4,055 votes against 2,726 votes of Pratibha. Chhatra RJD candidate Basant Kumar Yadav finished third with 1407 votes. Altogether eight candidates contested for the post. ABVP candidate Bipul Kumar defeated his nearest rival Modabbirul Islam by a margin of 583 votes for the post of general secretary. While Kumar secured 2,814 votes, Islam polled 2,231 votes. There were nine candidates for the post. Chhatra JD(U)'s Sandhya Kumari defeated her nearest rival Ravi Karan Singh of ABVP by a margin of 2,062 votes to bag joint secretary post. While, Sandhya got 4,787 votes, Ravi garnered only 2,725 votes. Shibli Tabrez of Jan Adhikar Chhatra Parishad finished third by securing 1,957 votes. Six candidates were in the fray for the post. Ravi Kant of Chhatra JD(U) was elected as treasurer by defeating his nearest rival Vaibhav of ABVP by a margin of 964 votes. Ravi got 4,006 votes, whereas Vaibhav could secure 3,042 votes. There were six contestants for this post. Those elected to the PUSU general council from different constituencies are Maithily Mrinalini, Reva Sinha, Saloni Raj, Prachi Sandilya, Roma Raj (Patna Women's College), Shalu, unopposed (Women's Training College), Raj Kishore, unopposed (Patna Training College), Jeetu Kumar (College of Arts and Crafts), Nitish Kumar and Saloni Singh (Patna College), Harsh Vardhan and Shivam Narayan (Vanijya Mahavidyalaya), Mrityunjay Kumar (Patna Law College), Priyanka Kumari, Mahira Fatima and Twinkle Kumari (Magadh Mahila College), Jitendra Kumar, Prakash Kumar and Shivam Kumar (B N College), Ramdhani Kumar and Krishna Pandey (Patna Science College), Sanjeev Kumar (faculty of science), Anshumali Kumar Mishra and Dhiraj Kumar (faculty of social science), Ankit Kumar (faculty of humanities) and Aditya Alok ( faculties of commerce, education and law). Hailing the grand victory of JD(U)-sponsored candidates, party spokesperson and former MLC Ranbir Nandam said a plethora of initiatives taken by the Nitish government, including student credit card, fee Wi-Fi facilities and special financial incentives to girl students have all been appreciated by the students of the state in general and PU in particular.
