- xv. Any contravention of any of the above rules may make the candidate liable lose his/her candidature, or his elected post, as the case may be. The University may initiate appropriate disciplinary action against such a violator.

xvi. In addition to the above, the provisions of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (section 153 A and Chapter IXA – "Offences relating to Election) shall also be applicable to the student election.

20. Disassociation of Student Elections and Student Representation from Political Parties:

During the period of the election, no person, who is not a student on the rolls of the University, shall be allowed to take part in the P.U. Students' Union election process in any capacity. Any person, candidate, or member of the student organization, violating this rule shall be subject to disciplinary proceedings, in addition to the candidature, as the case may be, being revoked.

21. Maintaining Law and Order on the Campus during the Election Process:

Any instance of acute lawlessness or the commission of a criminal offence shall be reported to the police by the Proctor as soon as possible, but not later than 6 hours after the alleged commission of the offence.

22. Grievance Redressal Mechanism:

There shall be a Grievance Redressal Cell, constituted by the Vice-Chancellor with the Dean Students' Welfare as its Chairman in addition to one senior Principal, one Senior Dean, Proctor & Registrar of the University as members. The Grievance Cell shall be mandated with the Redressal of election-related grievances, including but not limited to breaches of the Code of Conduct of Election and complaints relating to election-related expenditure. This cell would be the regular unit of the University.

(a) In pursuit of its duties, the Grievance Cell may prosecute violators of any aspect of the Code of Conduct or the ruling of the Grievance Cell. The Grievance Cell shall serve as the court of original jurisdiction. The Vice-Chancellor shall have appellate jurisdiction over issues of law and fact in all cases or controversies arising out of the conduct of the election in which the Grievance Cell has issued a final decision. Upon review, the Vice-Chancellor may revoke or modify the sanctions imposed by the Grievance Cell.

(b) In carrying out the duties of the office, the Grievance Cell shall conduct proceedings and hearing to fulfill those duties. In executing those duties, they shall have the authority:

- (i) to issue a writ of subpoena to compel candidate, agents, and workers, and to request students to appear and give testimony, as well as produce necessary records; and
- (ii) to inspect the financial reports of any candidate and make these records available for public scrutiny upon request.

(c) Members of the Grievance Cell are prohibited from filing complaints. Any other student may file a complaint with the Grievance Cell, within a period of 3 weeks from the date of declaration of results. All complaints must be filed under the name of the student filing the complaint. The Grievance Cell shall act on all complaints within 24 hours after they are received by either dismissing them or calling a hearing.

(d) The Grievance Cell may dismiss a complaint if:

- (i) the complaint was not filed within the time frame prescribed above;
- (ii) the complaint fails to state a cause of action for which relief may be granted.
- (iii) the complaint has not and/or likely will not suffer injury or damage.

(e) If a complaint is not dismissed, then a hearing must be held. The Grievance Cell shall inform, in writing, or via e-mail, the complaining party and all individuals or groups named in the complaint about the time and place of the hearing. The parties shall not be considered as notified until they have received a copy of the complaint.

(f) The hearing shall be held at the earliest possible time, but not within twenty-four (24) hours after receipt of the notice described above, unless all parties agree to waive the 24-hours time constraint.

(g) At the time notice of a hearing is issued, the Grievance Cell, by majority vote, may issue a temporary restraining order, if it determines that such an action is necessary to prevent undue or adverse effects on any individual. Any restraining order, once issued, will remain in effect until a decision of the Grievance Cell is announced after the hearing or until rescinded by the Grievance Cell.

- (h) All parties of the Grievance Cell hearing shall present themselves at the hearing and shall have the option to be represented by a counsel but the counsel must be a bonafied student of the University.
- (i) For any hearing, a majority of sitting Grievance Cell members must be in attendance with the Chair of the Grievance Cell presiding. In the absence of the Chair, the responsibility to preside shall fall to a Grievance Cell member designated by the Chair.
- (j) The Grievance Cell shall determine the format for the hearing, but must require that both the complaining and responding parties appear physically before the cell to discuss the issue through a complaint, answer, rebuttal, and rejoinder format. The purpose of the hearing is to gather the information necessary to make a decision, order or ruling that will resolve an election dispute. To effectuate this purpose, the following rules should prevail at all hearings:
 - (i) Complaining parties shall be allowed no more than two witnesses; however the Grievance Cell may call witnesses as required.
 - (ii) All questions and discussions by the parties in dispute shall be directed to the Grievance Cell.
 - (iii) There shall be no direct or cross-examination of any party or witness by complaining or responding parties during hearings.
 - (iv) Reasonable time limits may be set by the Grievance Cell, provided they give fair and equal treatment to both sides.
 - (v) The complaining party shall bear the burden of proof.
 - (vi) Decisions, orders, and rulings of the Grievance Cell must be concurred to by a majority of the Grievance Cell present and shall be announced as soon as possible after the hearing. The Grievance Cell shall issue a written opinion of the ruling within 12 hours of announcement of the decision. The written opinion must set forth the findings of fact by the Grievance Cell and the conclusions of law in support of it. Written opinions shall set precedence for a time period of three election cycles for Grievance Cell rulings, and shall guide the Grievance Cell in its proceedings. Upon consideration of prior written opinions, the Grievance Cell may negate the decision, but must provide written documentation of reasons for doing so.

- (vii) If the decision of the Grievance Cell is submitted for appeal to the Vice-Chancellor, the Grievance Cell must immediately submit its ruling to the Vice-Chancellor.
 - (viii) The Grievance Cell shall suggest the remedy or sanction punishment that is most appropriate to both, the type and severity of the infraction, as well as the state of mind or intent of the violator as determined by the Grievance Cell, possible remedies and sanctions included, but are not limited to fines, suspension of campaigning privileges, and disqualification from the election.
 - (ix) Any fine or total amount of fines against a candidate in an election cycle may not exceed the spending limit as defined herein above.
 - (x) If, after a hearing, the Grievance Cell finds that provisions of this Code were violated by a candidate, or a candidate's agent or workers, the Grievance Cell may restrict the candidate, or the candidate's agents or workers, from engaging in some or all campaign activities for some or all of the remainder of the campaign. If an order is issued covering only part of the remaining campaign period, it shall take effect immediately so that after its termination, the candidate will have an opportunity to resume campaigning during the days immediately prior to and including the election days.
 - (xi) If, after a hearing, the Grievance Cell finds that provision of either this code or decisions, opinions, orders, or rulings of the Grievance Cell have been willfully and blatantly violated by a candidate, or a candidate's agents or workers, the Grievance Cell may disqualify the candidate.
 - (xii) Any party adversely affected by a decision of the Grievance Cell may file an appeal with the Vice-Chancellor within twenty-four (24) hours after the adverse decision is announced. The Vice-Chancellor shall have discretionary appellate jurisdiction over the Grievance Cell in all cases in which error on the part of the Grievance Cell is charged.
 - (xiii) The decision of the Grievance Cell shall stand and shall have full effect until the appeal is heard and decided by the Vice-Chancellor.
 - (xiv) The Vice-Chancellor shall hear appeals of Grievance Cell rulings as soon as possible, but not within twenty-four (24) hours after the Grievance Cell delivers to the appellant and the Vice-Chancellor a copy of its written opinion in the case. Appeal may be heard prior to this time, but only if the Appellant waives the right to a written opinion and the Vice-Chancellor agrees to accept the waiver.

(xv) The Vice-Chancellor can issue suitable orders to suspend or halt the operation of the ruling issued by the Grievance Cell until the appeals are decided.

(xvi) The Vice-Chancellor shall review findings of the Grievance Cell when appealed. The Vice-Chancellor may affirm or overturn the decision of the Grievance Cell, or modify the sanctions imposed.

23. Election Related Expenditure and Financial Accountability:

23.1 The maximum permitted expenditure per candidate for office bearer shall not exceed Rs.5000/- and Rs.2000/- for college and faculty representative or council member in any circumstance whatsoever.

23.2 Each candidate shall, within two weeks of the declaration of the result, submit complete and certified accounts (to be certified by the candidate), of his expenditure to the University. The University shall publish such certified accounts within 2 working days of the submission of such accounts, through a suitable medium, so that any member of the student body may freely examine the same. The election of the candidate will be nullified in the event of any non-compliance or in the event of any excessive expenditure.

23.3 With a view to prevent the inflow of funds from political parties into the student election process, the candidates are specially barred from utilizing funds from any other sources than voluntary contributions from the student body.
